AMUSEMENTS.

GORMAN'S MINSTRELS.

Last night's minstrel entertainment at English's was the first professional performance given in the city since May, and this, together with the fact that it was the Gorman company, resulted in a crowded house, all three floors being filled. The performance was pleasing throughout. Although it was but the sixth entertainment given by the company this year, the performance dragged at no time, and a very observable feature was the lively way in which things were kept going from the beginning to the end. Gorman Writch has an idea that there should be nothing preying about a minstrel show, and accordingly has departed from the time-honored manner of introducing the company to the audience, for instead of seating them upon the stage, with the customary end-men and interlocutor, he begins with a sketch that brings out almost the entire strength of the company in songs, dances, jokes and so on. The company consists of about twenty persons, some of them new faces. Ad Hyman made a great hit with his "Political Ramble," and the Gormans displayed their old-time versatility. Two or three very pretty songs were among the attractions. George E. Brunton sang "Baby Bunting," and Edwin Harley, a ballad of his own composition, "The Pilot's Daughter," which was very catchy and bound to become popular. The variety in musical specialties, afforded one of the most entertaining features of the programme, and the military drill was fine. There will be a matinee this afternoon, and to-night the company gives its closing performance.

Another Republican Discharged.

C. F. Madison, who has been a letter-carrier in the Indianapolis postoffice for ten years to-day have to obey Postmaster Jones's civil-service rule, and has been discharged. The charge against him is that he is a Republican.

GEN HARRISON'S CALLERS.

Order of Next Week's Receptions, Which Will Bring Large Crowds to the City.

Since the call of the Evansville and Crawfordsville delegations, on Tuesday, General Harrison has been enjoying a slight period of repose, that is so far as receiving visitors is concerned. No more delegations will come to see him until next week, but from Tuesday on the week will be an eventful one. On that day he will be visited by the Republicans of Decatur, Ill., and Hamilton county. The latter delegation is expected to be a large one, coming as it does from a strong Republican and neighboring county. On Wednesday Rush, Decatur and Delaware county delegations will call. The train from Rushville will arrive about 9 o'clock, and Judge W. A. Cullen, delegate to the late Chicago convention, will act as spokesman. On Friday people from Johnson county, Jacksonville and Paxton, Ill., and Dana are to come, while on Saturday the commercial travelers of Peoria will visit the city.

General Harrison's mail continues large and keeps his secretary busy attending to it. Matters of a personal nature have his immediate supervision, while things relating to the campaign are taken in charge by Captain Alexander and turned over to the proper committees. Reports of the Tippecanoe organizations are coming in to the General from all parts of the country. The Iowa Register has published more than 1,400 names already of men living in that State who were 1840 voters, and who have been sent in. Ohio also has a record of 4,000 of these veterans in political organizations. Michigan has a large number, the Detroit Tribune having published quite an extensive list. The letters that come from these veterans are many of them highly interesting. They recount many of the scenes and transactions of the memorable campaign of forty-eight years ago. Not long ago a letter came from Thomas E. Ellsworth, of West Richmond, O., in which the writer said: "I am ninety-two years old, and if my life is spared until November you will be the seventeenth President for whom I have voted, your grandfather, of course, being one of the number."

Reuben Carter, of Welbourn, Va., was an old rebel and a Democrat. He found an 1840 Harrison medal and sent it to the General. Mr. Carter, in the course of his letter, wrote: "I am glad to think that if you are elected we will have an old Virginia-bred man at the helm (for I believe in a breed of men as well as of horses) to be President of the whole people—if you did help to elect me, I would be glad to do so. So I inclose to you the medal, hoping it may bring you good luck in some way." These are the only samples of mail that come to hand. Of course the appreciation by Gen. Harrison, some of them coming, as they do, from men who have been Democrats, and assured of their good wishes and support. Among the callers at the General's home yesterday was J. C. Brand, of Bellefontaine, O., who came to fix a date with the State central committee for the Republican of his section to pay their respects to their presidential nominee.

A FIELD FOR ATHLETICS.

The Plan the Y. M. C. A. Proposes to Carry Out for the Benefit of Its Members.

The Y. M. C. A. has for some time contemplated having an athletic ground for the use of its members. Arrangements have about been concluded with the State Board of Agriculture for the field within the new race course at the fair grounds. As this comprises seven or eight acres, it will furnish ample space for the various kinds of sport in which young men generally take an interest, including base-ball, lacrosse, tennis and bicycling. After broaching the matter to the State fair managers the young men were informed that the Y. M. C. A. could have the ground free of rent, provided it would make all the needed improvements thereon, and would give the Fair Grounds Association 25 per cent. of the gate receipts at all athletic contests held there at which an admission fee was charged. To improve the grounds to suit the purposes of the association will cost about $300, and this amount the young men have already raised among themselves. While the arrangement with the State fair managers has not been altogether perfected, it is far enough advanced to make the enterprise reasonably certain. It is hoped to have the grounds ready by the 1st of September.

The plan as adopted contemplates placing the diamond in the north end of the field, with the bicycle track at the south of it. Within this track will be the tennis courts. One of the reasons why it is desired to complete the grounds at an early date is in order that the State championship for amateurs may be held during State fair week.

To Investigate the Water Supply.

The City Board of Health has taken initiatory steps to investigate the charge made by the Council committee that the Indianapolis Waterworks Company is taking its supply of water from the river and the canal. The official notice of the action of Council in referring the matter to the board of health was received yesterday by the board's secretary, Dr. Earp. He immediately addressed to the Council committee a communication stating that the matter would receive prompt attention. He asked the committee to file affidavits, written evidence, and such other information as it may have with Mr. Hedden, the clerk of the board. A meeting will be held at an early date, perhaps on Monday, at which all interested parties will be represented. The water company is still submitting documentary evidence, and its representatives say they will be able to show the falsity of the charges made.

The Benevolent Institutions.

State Treasurer Lemcke has received from the various State benevolent institutions their reports of expenses and earnings for the month of July. The Indiana Hospital expenses are: For maintenance, $22,316.98; for repairs, $1,304.59; and for clothing, $1,000. The Deaf and Dumb Institution: For maintenance, $2,950.18, and for repairs, $143.22. The reports from the institution for the blind are not yet received, but they will approximate $900. The earnings for the Indiana Hospital for June were $122.07, for the Deaf and Dumb institution for July, $12.69, and for the institution for the blind, including both June and July, $27.62. Mr. Briggs, of Greencastle, also turned in $29.65 on behalf of the Blind Asylum as a dividend from money deposited with the Indiana Banking Company.

Reached a Cell Instead of Marriage.

John Flemming, alias John Nottingham, was arrested last night upon the charge of horse-stealing. He is a young man, twenty-one years of age, and a native of Howard county. Since his arrival in this city, two weeks ago, he has resided with a man by the name of Wade, No. 207 South Illinois street. It is alleged that he secured a horse and buggy of a man in his native town and sold it for $80 to a party living in Swartz county. He and a young lady, Ida McQuiston, attempted to elope, it is said, but were foiled by the lady's brother. It was for that purpose he got the horse and buggy.

The Pattison Indebtedness.

The city, through Mayor Denny, yesterday made a partial settlement with O. H. Hasselman, who, as one of the sureties on the bond of L. N. Pattison, agreed to do $10,000 worth of printing for the city. Mr. Hasselman has assigned to the city warrants for $7,220.81, covering the period between June 1, last year, and the present date. Up to date, Mr. Hasselman has remitted $5,741 of the amount for which he was liable. He has $1,249 yet to pay.

New Incorporations.

The Cedar Lake Yacht Club Association, of Cedar Lake, yesterday filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. The capital stock is $20,000. Wm. H. Green, Taylor Neal, and Harry Tindall are the directors. The E. F. Fuller installment Company, of this city, was also incorporated with $10,000 capital, for the purpose of buying and selling general merchandise. The directors are Frank E. Fuller, Chas. E. Test and C. C. Perry.

Wanted to Be Arrested.

Prosecuting attorney Mitchell had a visitor in his office yesterday in the person of Fred Younger, who insisted upon being arrested. A dark shadow, he claimed followed him everywhere he directed his steps, and he was laboring under the delusion that somewhere in the hands of Indianapolis officials was a warrant for his arrest. The attorney sent him over to the United States marshal's office, there Deputy Chris Stein was the first one he met. He again stated his misfortunes and demanded that he be placed under the care of a physician and sent out of the city. He was admonished to seek elsewhere for justice.

CULLINGS FROM THE COURTS.

A Receiver's Showing of Large Expenditures for Salaries and Expenses.

Judge Taylor yesterday morning heard evidence on the petition to have Giles S. Bradley, receiver of the Grand Lodge, United Order of Honor, removed. The petitioners had but little to offer, but Mr. Bradley came prepared with affidavits to show that there was no collusion between him and any creditor. An affidavit was also presented from Oliver H. Thomas, one of the trustees, showing that at the conference of the lodge on the 7th inst. it was agreed that a claim held by Dr. Haggart should be paid. Mr. Bradley stated that he was not a creditor; that when he took charge of the affairs of the lodge all the cash he found was 25 cents in one bank and $54.84 in the Bank of Commerce. He submitted to the court the order-book of the lodge, showing that the supreme president, secretary and treasurer, according to the "rules," were paid in full for their services. Dues, secretary, $5, 124.76; treasurer, $1,453.33; Wishard, who was supreme president one and a half year, $2,519.85; Wishard, since January, as attorney, $455; McIntire, president, $812.26; in conclusion, Mr. Bradley alleged that there had been a wilful perversion of the funds of the lodge, and that the Supreme Lodge was hopelessly insolvent. After hearing the evidence, Judge Taylor took the case under advisement until Monday.

Troubles of Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Nan Wilson, whose domestic troubles have been before the public for some time, has become the plaintiff in another suit for divorce from her husband, Emory Wilson. She first gained notoriety six months ago by going to Shelbyville attempting to shoot a woman whom she charged with being the companion of her husband. After that she instituted divorce suits for divorce and maintenance, but dismissed them. In the present suit she charges that her husband has deserted her and refused to provide for herself and daughter. She says he is receiving a salary of $1,500 per month, and asks the court to order him to pay $1,200 monthly. She also asks to be given the custody of their daughter.

Haley's Alleged Offense.

James Haley was bound over to the grand jury by Mayor Denny, yesterday. He is charged with waylaying and robbing Evander Evans. The evidence was to the effect that Haley followed Evans from West Indianapolis to the Morris-street bridge over White river, and then robbed him. Several months ago Haley was arrested for the murder of George DeBurrer, the street-car driver who was beaten to death with a coupling-pin, but there was not evidence sufficient enough to hold him. He is charged with no defense before the Mayor yesterday.

A Coal-Dealer Falls.

Henry C. Smith, a coal-dealer, yesterday made an assignment to Arthur V. Brown. His assets include sixty tons of coal, an equal number of cords of wood, horses, wagons and carts. He had two offices, one at 54 South Noble street, and the other at No. 2 Hosbrook street. His liabilities are not large, and all the creditors will, it is believed, be paid in full. Depression of business on account of the production of natural gas was the cause of the failure.

Sentencing Criminals.

In the Criminal Court, yesterday, Fred Bostler and Fred Banky, indicted for breaking into a C. L. St. L. & C. freight car and stealing clothing valued at $200, pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. They will be taken to Michigan City to-day. Charles Wilson, charged with petit larceny, pleaded guilty, and will be sentenced to-day.

Grand Jury Report.

The grand jury made another partial report yesterday. It returned indictments against Andrew Allen for robbery, Thomas Riley for petit larceny, John Spelling for larceny, Morris Murphy for assault and battery on his wife, and Orr Shaw for petit larceny. Those indicted were all arraigned, and all pleaded not guilty except Riley.

Said To Be Dangerous.

Mollie J. Baker, a restaurant-keeper at No. 83 West Washington street, had a commission appointed to investigate the mental condition of her son, R. E. Baker, 15 E. Polk street. The inquiry will be before Squire Jenkins this morning. Mrs. Baker alleges that her husband is suicidal, homicidal and violent.

A Guardian Qualifies.

William Mustard has qualified as guardian of Ida May Powell.

THE ASSEMBLY MEETINGS.

Missionary Work Was the Topic Considered at Bethany Park Yesterday.

Yesterday, in keeping with missionary day, three addresses were delivered in the grand Tabernacle on the Bethany Assembly grounds. The first was by an Armenian—by name Shiek Manian, of Constantinople. He has an American wife whom he married when a student in a Kentucky college. In his travels from world to world, as he tells it, he was won over to the plea made by the Disciples of Christ, while in Texas, and after fitting himself for the ministry was sent back to his native land as a missionary, where he has met with a good degree of success. In Turkey he is almost certain of being imprisoned on false accusations if he professes Christianity. His converts consequently come from other parts of the Ottoman empire—principally from the Armenians.

The corresponding secretary of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, A. McLean, of Ohio, made the next address about the great London convention and its session. There were one hundred and twenty-seven delegates from the United States and about twenty-seven from Canada. Some people complained that the speakers were not very well known, but it was because they were so busy with their Master's work they had no time to make worldly reputation for themselves. That conference was called for the purpose of collecting all the information possible from all missionary fields. There was not a mission field in the world but that was considered carefully.

President Loos spoke on foreign missions. He said when the Lord said "Go into all the world and preach the gospel," the missionary work was not a new thing. The next few years will be regarded as the formative period, in a religious point of view, of this vast domain. As representatives of the plea for a union of God's people the Disciples should make strenuous endeavors to spread the pure gospel faith all over the land, and especially now in the far Western communities. What is to be done must be done quickly.

The afternoon closed with a conference conducted by the corresponding secretary of the general society, Elder Robert Moffett, of Ohio. Dr. R. H. of Kansas spoke at night in the interest of the church extension fund, of which he is the chief solicitor.

To-day Dr. R. T. Brown will be master of ceremonies for the temperance day at the park. The speakers, as announced, are Mrs. Zerelda G. Wallace, of Catawba; Mrs. Pervis L. Christian, of Chicago, Ill., and Prof. D. R. Lucas, of Des Moines, Ia.

To-morrow the sermons are to be by Elder John Schackelford, of Lexington, Ky., in the Tabernacle, and W. H. Kerr, of Wayneville, in the pavilion. Both will be at 10:30 A. M. Elder D. R. Lucas preaches at 2 P. M. The Lord's supper will be given at 4 o'clock, and a sermon will be preached by Elder MacNeill, of Rushville, at 8 P. M. The Women's Board of Christian Missions meets Monday and Tuesday. The first Tuesday in February, 1889, and the day after that will be fixed as the anniversary of the place for the coming semi-annual meeting of the State convention of Christian Sunday-schools.

Taking Care of Themselves.

The members of the late Indiana Lodge, No. 87, United Order of Honor, who withdrew from the insolvent Grand Lodge, met last evening and took steps towards organizing an independent association on a plan similar to that by which the Grand Lodge was conducted. The committee on by-laws reported, and its work was adopted without a dissenting voice. The association will be incorporated by the 1st of September, and the charter roll will be left open until the 30th of this month. The organization is limited to Marion county.

Thrown from a Buggy.

Thomas Williams, an employee of John Clune, the furniture dealer, was seriously injured in a runaway accident in West Indianapolis yesterday morning. His horse became frightened at an I. & W. locomotive, and he was thrown from his buggy. Williams' left ankle was broken, and his skull slightly fractured. He was removed to his home, No. 1854 West Washington street, by Flanner & Buchanan.

At Camp Acton.

The special feature at the Acton Park Assembly to-morrow will be the address of Rev. G. W. Gray, D. D., on the religious work and progress in the Southern States. His wide experience and observation in that section enables him to make the subject very interesting. The assembly closes its work on Monday.

Justice of the Peace Removed.

Governor Gray was yesterday notified of the removal of George A. Burman from the position of justice of the peace in Steele township, Davies county. This action is the result of Burman's failure to execute a new bond, as ordered by Judge Heffron, of the Davies county Circuit Court.

Building Permits.

The following building permits were issued yesterday: C. Idler, frame cottage on West South street, near Missouri, $1,000; R. Haver, brick frame at No. 455 North California street, $1,000; D. P. Gray, two-story frame house on Fletcher avenue, near Linden street, $1,000.

Ryan, the Hatter.

Full style hats received at "Seaton's Hat Store," 25 North Pennsylvania street.

TRIFLES IN STONES

Precious stones of a secondary order, such as moonstones, agate, onyx, garnet, topaz, amethyst, alpine-marine, lapis lazuli, etc., all now enjoy a certain popularity, but their use is entirely restricted to fancy trinkets, small brooches, pins and such like trifles. These trifles are pretty to look at, and don't cost much to buy. Always get to go to shop goods. (Always glad to sell them, too.)

ROYAL BAKING POWDER ABSOLUTELY PURE.

For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power. It is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light, sweet, most palatable and nutritive food. Bread, biscuits, muffins, cake, etc., raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration.

Prof. H. A. Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country, reported:

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government."

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public."
